How will DLR PPN use your personal data?

Under the provisions of the Local Government (Reform) Act 2014 Dún Laoghaire-Rathdown Public Participation Network (DLR PPN) is the official link between the Local Authority and Community & Voluntary, Social Inclusion and Environmental groups within Dun Laoghaire-Rathdown. The remit of DLR PPN is to ensure that member groups have a voice in Local Authority decision-making, to build the capacity of DLR PPN member groups and to act as a hub for DLR PPN members to network, share and receive relevant information.

DLR PPN will use the information your group or organisation provides during registration to send you information about DLR PPN events, activities and training, information from Dún Laoghaire-Rathdown County Council that that we deem to be relevant to DLR PPN members, information about local and national consultations, our monthly e-newsletter and any other information we deem legitimate to carrying out our remit.

If you provide us with contact information for alternate contacts for your group or organisation, you agree that you have obtained the consent from the alternate contact for the disclosure and use of their personal data as described above. You can request a copy of your personal data or request that your personal data be updated or removed from our database by emailing secretariat@dlrppn.ie or by writing to the postal address below.

GDPR Consent

I agree to allow DLR PPN to store my group/organisation's contact details on a database held by DLR PPN and/or its agents for the purposes listed above.
