

DLR PPN Activity Report June 2024

DLR PPN Five-Year Plan 2024-2029

Community Connection Radio Programme Featured:

- Helium Arts is a national children's arts and health charity supporting the social and emotional needs of children facing lifelong physical health conditions through creative programmes. Joining us to discuss their new creative workshops and summer camps is CEO, Helene Hugal.
- Dance Theatre of Ireland is a professional contemporary dance company based in Dun Laoghaire in a state-of-the-art Centre for Dance in Bloomfields. They provide activities to keep people mentally and physically fit at all ages and abilities. Co-Artistic Director, Loretta Yurick joins us to provide more details on the range of classes they currently offer.
- The Irish Council for Civil Liberties present their new advocacy initiative, Rochtain, which will work to democratise and enhance the advocacy capacity of community and voluntary organisations through training, information seminars and 1-1 support. Joining us from the ICCL to discuss further is Democratic Freedoms Senior Policy Officer, Ronan Kennedy.
